SESSIONS AUTUMN 2018

The Ancient Greek Reading Circle is a group that meets under the auspices of CAI (Dublin) to share a mutual interest and pleasure in Ancient Greek literature.

We welcome you this Autumn to a new series of sessions to consider, translate and discuss texts from authors belonging to any of the eras and areas that produced Greek literature from the 8th Century BC to the Byzantine age.

Each session will be guided by a leader who will situate the chosen text in its historical and literary context and who will moderate the translation and discussion to follow.

All sessions are on MONDAYS @ 7pm.

Venue is TCD, Arts Block, Department of Classics (6th Floor)
